Hello, I'm Anxious (Carolina Rodrigues) :) I'm a graphic designer and tattoo artist based in Setúbal, Portugal. My passion lies in branding and editorial design, while in tattooing, I'm specialized in blackwork projects. To me, both design and tattoo are intimate, expressive forms of storytelling. Whether it's ink on skin or ink on paper, I believe in the emotional weight of visuals and their power to create lasting, personal connections. I'm constantly exploring new techniques, driven by a need to evolve creatively through experimentation.
